Dear [Landlord/Property Manager's Name],

We hope this letter finds you well. We are writing to formally express our interest in renting the property located at [Property Address]. As a couple looking to downsize, we believe this property perfectly suits our needs.

Having recently reviewed our current living situation, we have decided that transitioning to a more manageable space will allow us to better utilize our time and resources. Your property offers the right amount of space and amenities that align with our lifestyle goals.

We have a steady income, excellent rental history, and we are committed to maintaining the property in excellent condition. We appreciate the opportunity to make it our home and assure you that we will be responsible tenants.

We would love to discuss the rental terms and the application process at your earliest convenience. Thank you for considering our application.

Sincerely,
