

Thank You for Your Application

Dear [Job Seeker's Name],

Thank you for your interest in the [Job Title] position at [Company Name]. We appreciate the time you spent applying and the effort you put into your interview.

While your qualifications and experience are impressive, we have determined that we need to pursue candidates whose skills align more closely with the requirements of the role at this time. This decision was not an easy one, as your background stood out in many ways.

We encourage you to apply for any future positions that match your skills and experience. Your profile is certainly one we would like to keep in mind for upcoming opportunities.

Thank you once again for your interest in [Company Name]. We wish you all the best in your job search and future professional endeavors.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

[Your Job Title]

[Company Name]