Dear [Recipient Name],

Subject: Request for Augmentation of Business Credit Limit

I am writing to formally request an increase in the credit limit assigned to our business account with [Bank/Financial Institution Name]. Our company, [Your Company Name], has experienced significant growth over the past [time period], which has positively impacted our cash flow and operational capabilities.

Given our strong financial performance and the current opportunities in the market, we believe that an increased credit limit will enable us to [mention specific reasons such as expanding inventory, financing new projects, enhancing operations, etc.]. We have maintained a consistent payment history and have successfully met our financial obligations to your institution.

We would appreciate your consideration of our request and would be happy to provide any additional documentation or information to facilitate this process. Thank you for your attention to this matter. We look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,
