Dear [Recipient Name],

We hope this letter finds you well. In light of the recent changes in the financial landscape, we would like to propose a revision of the current interest rates applicable to our agreement.

As you are aware, recent developments such as [mention specific events or trends, e.g., economic fluctuations, changes in central bank policies, etc.] have impacted the financial market significantly. These changes have necessitated a reassessment of our existing terms to ensure alignment with current economic conditions.

We propose the following revisions to the interest rates:

- Current Interest Rate: [Insert Current Rate]
- Proposed Interest Rate: [Insert Proposed Rate]
- Effective Date: [Insert Effective Date]

We believe that these adjustments will facilitate a more sustainable partnership and support both parties in navigating the evolving financial environment. We are committed to maintaining open communication and are available to discuss this proposal at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. We look forward to your positive consideration and to continuing our successful collaboration.

Sincerely,
