Dear [Recipient's Name],

We hope this message finds you well. We are writing to inform you that, effective [Start Date], we will be implementing a temporary freeze on all telemarketing activities. This pause is necessary to conduct an in-depth market analysis and ensure that our outreach strategies align with the needs of our customers.

We value your insights and look forward to better understanding the market dynamics during this period. We anticipate resuming our telemarketing efforts on or around [End Date].

If you have any questions or need further information, please do not hesitate to contact us at [Your Phone Number] or [Your Email Address].

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
