Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you in good health and spirits. I am writing to propose the establishment of a Religious Study Group within our community to foster spiritual growth and deeper understanding of our faith.

The objectives of this study group would include:

- Encouraging members to explore and discuss religious texts and teachings.
- Creating a supportive environment for spiritual and personal growth.
- Facilitating group discussions and reflection on contemporary issues in relation to our faith.

I believe that this group could meet weekly at [proposed location] and be open to all members of our congregation. It would provide an invaluable opportunity for fellowship and growth.

Thank you for considering this proposal. I would be happy to discuss it further and address any questions you may have.

Sincerely,
