

Follow-Up for Participants in Faith Oral History Project

Dear [Participant's Name],

We hope this message finds you well. We want to extend our heartfelt thanks for your participation in the Faith Oral History Project. Your insights and experiences are invaluable to our efforts in preserving and sharing the richness of our community's faith journeys.

As we progress with the project, we would love to hear any additional thoughts or reflections you may have. If you would like to share more or if you have any questions about the project, please feel free to reach out.

We also want to keep you updated on our timeline. The collected stories will be compiled and shared with the community by [insert date]. We are excited to celebrate the faith stories and contributions of all participants.

Thank you once again for your valuable participation. Your voice truly matters!

Warm regards,
