Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. We are writing to propose a collaborative research initiative that aligns with the objectives of both our institutions. Our preliminary discussions have led us to believe that working together on [briefly describe the research topic or area] would yield significant results for our respective fields.

We propose to explore [detailed description of the research idea], which we believe has the potential to make a meaningful impact. Our shared expertise in [mention relevant fields or specialties] positions us well to tackle the challenges involved.

We are seeking your support and collaboration to outline the goals, funding opportunities, and resources that could be pooled together for this initiative. We would greatly appreciate the opportunity to discuss this proposal further at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for considering this opportunity for collaboration. We look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,
