

Cancellation of Cooking Course

Dear [Participant's Name],

We hope this message finds you well. We regret to inform you that due to unforeseen scheduling conflicts, we must cancel the upcoming cooking course originally scheduled for [start date].

We understand the inconvenience this may cause and are truly sorry for any disruption to your plans. If you have already made any payments, we will ensure that your full amount is refunded within the next [number of days] days.

We encourage you to join our future classes and will keep you updated on new dates. Thank you for your understanding, and we appreciate your interest in our cooking courses.

Best regards,

[Your Name]

[Your Position]

[Company/Organization Name]

[Contact Information]