

Behavioral Expectations in the Classroom

Dear Students,

As we start this new school year, it is essential to establish a clear understanding of the behavioral expectations in our classroom. These guidelines will help us create a positive and respectful learning environment for everyone.

Expectations

- Respect: Treat classmates, teachers, and classroom materials with kindness and consideration.
- Responsibility: Come prepared for class, complete assignments on time, and take ownership of your actions.
- Integrity: Be honest in your work and interactions. Cheating and lying are not tolerated.
- Collaboration: Work well with peers, listen actively, and contribute to group discussions.
- Communication: Use appropriate language and tone when speaking to others. Raise your hand to speak.

Consequences

Failure to adhere to these expectations may result in the following consequences:

1. Verbal warning
2. Written reflection
3. Parent notification
4. Meeting with a counselor

Let's work together to make this classroom a supportive and enjoyable place for everyone. Your cooperation and commitment to these expectations are greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
