Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to express my concern regarding the recent changes proposed in our local housing policy. As a resident of [Your Neighborhood/City], I believe these changes could have significant implications for our community.

Specifically, I am worried about [briefly outline specific issues or changes in the policy]. These alterations could lead to [explain potential consequences, e.g., increased housing costs, displacement of residents, or loss of community character].

I urge you to consider the potential impact these changes may have on the existing residents and the overall health of our community. I believe that housing policies should promote inclusivity and affordability while preserving the unique character of our neighborhoods.

Thank you for your attention to this important matter. I hope to see a thorough review of these changes and would appreciate any opportunity for public discussion.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
