

Restorative Justice Letter

Date: _____

To: _____

From: _____

Subject: Invitation to Engage in Restorative Justice Practices

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to you regarding the situation that occurred on [insert date or description of the incident]. It has been recognized that this event has created a divide between us, and I believe engaging in restorative justice practices could be beneficial for both of us.

Restorative justice focuses on repairing harm and making amends rather than on punishment. I would like to invite you to participate in a restorative circle where we can openly discuss our feelings and perspectives about the incident. The goal is to foster understanding, encourage accountability, and explore ways for reconciliation.

Our proposed meeting details are as follows:

- Date: _____
- Time: _____
- Location: _____

We can adjust the details if needed. Your feelings and comfort are of utmost importance in this process.

Thank you for considering this opportunity for healing and communication. I am hopeful we can work together towards a positive resolution.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
