

Job Application Rejection

Dear [Applicant's Name],

Thank you for your interest in the [Job Title] position at [Company Name] and for the time you invested in the interview process.

We appreciate your skills and experience. However, due to recent organizational restructuring, we have decided to withdraw from the hiring process for this role.

We encourage you to apply for future openings that align with your qualifications, as we were genuinely impressed with your candidacy.

Thank you once again for your interest in [Company Name]. We wish you all the best in your job search.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
