Subject: Disclosure of Long-Term Contract Requirements

Dear [Recipient Name],

We are writing to inform you of the disclosure requirements associated with long-term contracts as per [relevant regulations or standards]. It is imperative that we ensure transparency and compliance in our contractual obligations.

For any long-term contracts, the following disclosures are required:

- Contract duration
- Estimated total revenue and expenses
- Risk assessment related to performance obligations
- Key terms and conditions affecting financial estimates
- Impact of contract on our financial statements

We request that you provide the necessary documentation and information by [insert deadline], to facilitate our compliance with the requirements.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please feel free to reach out if you have any questions or need further clarification.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
