Dear [Recipient Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to propose an exhibition of community artwork at the upcoming school art showcase scheduled for [Insert Date of Event]. Our community has a wealth of creative talent that we would love to share with the students and attendees of your event.

The proposed display will include a diverse range of artwork from local artists, including paintings, sculptures, and mixed media pieces. We believe that this collaboration will enhance the art showcase experience and inspire students to engage with their own creativity.

We are willing to provide all necessary materials and support to ensure a smooth setup and display process. Additionally, we would love to involve students by offering workshops during the showcase to foster interaction between artists and students.

Thank you for considering our proposal. I am eager to discuss this opportunity further and explore how we can make this collaboration successful. I look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,
