

Advice for International Delegates on Customs Best Practices

Dear Delegates,

As you prepare for the upcoming conference, we would like to share some essential customs best practices to ensure a smooth and efficient experience. Please consider the following recommendations:

Importing Conference Materials

- Ensure all materials are clearly labeled and include necessary documentation.
- Check the customs regulations for the specific items you intend to bring.
- Keep an inventory of all materials for customs declaration purposes.

Declaration of Goods

- Always declare all goods brought into the country, including promotional items.
- Understand any applicable duties or taxes for your items.
- Use accurate descriptions to avoid delays or misunderstandings.

Restricted Items

- Familiarize yourself with restricted or prohibited items in the host country.
- Contact the relevant authorities if you are unsure about specific items.
