Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally notify you of an inheritance dispute regarding the real estate property located at [Property Address].

As per the last will and testament of [Deceased's Name], it has come to my attention that there are differing claims regarding the inheritance of this property. While I believe that I am entitled to my share based on the will, I understand that there are also claims made by you and possibly other parties.

In an effort to resolve this matter amicably, I propose that we engage in a discussion to clarify our respective positions and find a mutually agreeable solution. I believe it is in our best interest to come to an understanding without resorting to legal proceedings.

Please let me know your availability for a meeting or if you prefer to communicate via another method. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
