Dear [Recipient's Name],

We are writing to provide you with an update regarding the ongoing government audit of financial firms, which is part of our efforts to enhance transparency and accountability in the financial sector.

As of now, the audit is proceeding on schedule, with a focus on compliance with regulations, risk management practices, and internal controls. We appreciate your cooperation and timely responses to our inquiries.

Please be advised that we may reach out for further documentation or clarification as we progress in our evaluation.

We thank you for your continued support and commitment to upholding the highest standards within the financial industry.

Sincerely,
