Dear [Consultant's Name],

I am writing to formally request your consultancy services for business model innovation. Our company, [Your Company Name], is seeking to enhance our current business model to better align with market trends and customer demands.

We are particularly interested in exploring new avenues for revenue generation, improving operational efficiency, and leveraging technology to innovate our services. Your expertise in this area is highly regarded, and we believe your guidance could be instrumental in our efforts.

We would appreciate the opportunity to discuss this further. Please let us know your availability for a meeting within the next few weeks.

Thank you for considering our request. We look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,
