Dear [Party A's Name] and [Party B's Name],

We are writing to introduce you to the concept of collaborative law as an alternative approach to resolving your current dispute regarding [briefly describe the nature of the dispute].

Collaborative law is a process where both parties commit to resolving their issues amicably and respectfully, with the assistance of trained professionals, including collaborative lawyers and other specialists if necessary. The goal is to create a mutually beneficial agreement without the need for litigation.

By choosing collaborative law, you will have the opportunity to:

- Control the pace and terms of the process.
- Maintain a constructive and respectful dialogue.
- Work towards solutions that meet both parties' needs.

We believe that this approach can offer significant advantages in preserving relationships and fostering a positive resolution. If you are interested in learning more about collaborative law and how it could work for your situation, we would be happy to set up a meeting at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for considering this option. We look forward to the possibility of assisting you.

Best regards,
