To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to inquire about the business registration process in the tax-free zone. I am interested in establishing a business within the designated area and would like to understand the specific requirements, documentation needed, and any associated fees involved in the registration process.

Additionally, I would appreciate any information regarding the benefits and incentives provided to businesses operating in the tax-free zone, as well as the timeline for the registration process.

Thank you for your assistance. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,
