Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally address concerns regarding potential tax evasion claims associated with [Individual or Business Name]. It has come to my attention that there may be discrepancies in their reported income and tax contributions for the fiscal year [Insert Year].

I believe it is essential to investigate this matter further as it undermines the integrity of our taxation system. I have gathered some documentation and evidence which I am willing to share to assist in this investigation.

Please let me know the appropriate steps I should take and any information you may require from my side. I look forward to your prompt response to this serious matter.

Thank you for your attention to this issue.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
