Dear Customer Service Team,

I am writing to express my dissatisfaction with the recent telecom services I have experienced with your company. Over the past [duration], I have encountered a series of issues including poor signal strength, frequent call drop-offs, and unreliable internet connectivity.

These problems have not only caused significant inconvenience but have also hindered my ability to communicate effectively for both personal and professional matters. I had expected much better service from your reputed company.

I kindly request that you look into this matter and provide me with a resolution or compensation for the inconvenience caused. Thank you for your attention to this matter, and I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
