

Dear [Recipient's Name],

We hope this message finds you well. As you may know, the national census is currently underway, and your participation is crucial for our community's representation and resource allocation.

Completing the census takes just a few minutes, but its impact lasts for years. By providing accurate information, you help ensure that our neighborhoods receive the support they need, from healthcare to education and infrastructure.

Your voice matters, and your input is invaluable. Let's come together to ensure that every individual is counted. Please take a moment to fill out your census form today!

Thank you for your commitment to our community.

Sincerely,
