Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to formally protest the false claims made in your advertising materials regarding [specific product or service]. It has come to my attention that your advertisements suggest [specific false claim], which I believe misleads consumers.

As a concerned customer and member of the community, I urge you to review your promotional content and ensure that all claims made are accurate and substantiated. Misleading advertising not only affects consumers' trust but also undermines the integrity of your brand.

I request a response to my letter, detailing how you plan to address these misleading practices in your future advertising efforts.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I look forward to your prompt reply.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
