Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to formally lodge a complaint regarding what I believe to be misleading marketing practices by [Company Name]. On [date of incident], I was approached by a representative who provided information about energy services that I now believe to be inaccurate.

Specifically, I was told that [insert details regarding the misleading information or promises made]. This led me to believe that [explain the impact of the misleading information on your decision].

Upon further research, I discovered that [provide evidence or examples that contradict the claims made by the company]. This has caused not only confusion but potential financial implications for myself and my household.

I urge you to review this matter seriously and take appropriate action to address these misleading practices. Consumer trust is paramount, and it is essential that [Company Name] adheres to ethical marketing standards.

I look forward to your prompt response regarding this matter. I hope for a resolution that restores my faith in [Company Name] and protects other consumers from similar experiences.

Thank you for your attention to this important issue.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
