To Whom It May Concern,

I hope this message finds you well. My name is [Your Name], and I am writing to inquire about the Veterans Assistance Program.

As a veteran, I am interested in learning more about the eligibility requirements for this program, as well as the benefits it offers. Could you please provide me with information on the following:

- Eligibility criteria and documentation required
- Application process and timeline
- Types of assistance available

Thank you for your time and assistance. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,
