Dear [Lender's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally request a review of my current mortgage interest rate associated with my loan account [Your Loan Account Number].

Due to [briefly explain your reasons, such as recent financial changes, market rate reductions, or exemplary payment record], I believe a reduction in my interest rate would be both beneficial to my financial situation and advantageous for your institution.

Since I began my mortgage in [Loan Start Date], I have consistently made my payments on time and have maintained a positive relationship with your bank. Given the current market rates, I kindly request that you consider adjusting my rate to better reflect the industry standards.

Thank you for taking the time to consider my request. I look forward to your prompt response and hope we can discuss this matter further.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
