Dear [Recipient Name],

We are writing to propose the establishment of a Debt Relief Program specifically designed for recent college graduates. With the rising cost of education and the burden of student loans, many graduates are finding it increasingly challenging to manage their financial responsibilities.

The proposed program aims to provide financial education, counseling services, and potential loan forgiveness options for eligible graduates. Our objective is to support these young professionals as they transition into their careers while ensuring financial stability and fostering economic growth.

Key components of the Debt Relief Program include:

- Financial education workshops focused on budgeting, saving, and investing.
- One-on-one counseling sessions to assess individual financial situations.
- Collaboration with loan servicers to explore forgiveness and repayment options.

We believe that implementing this program will not only alleviate financial stress for recent graduates but will also contribute to a more robust workforce and strengthen our economy.

We are eager to discuss this proposal further and explore potential partnerships that can make this initiative a reality. Thank you for considering our proposal. We look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,
