

Motion for Child Custody Modification

To the Honorable Judge [Name],

I, [Your Name], am writing to formally request a modification of the existing child custody arrangement concerning my child, [Child's Name], born on [Child's Birthdate]. This request is based on my recent relocation to [New Location].

Currently, the custody agreement stipulates that [briefly state current custody arrangement]. However, due to my move to [New Location], I believe it is in the best interest of [Child's Name] to modify the custody arrangement to reflect the changes in my living situation.

The reasons for this motion are as follows:

- [Reason 1: e.g., better housing, employment opportunities, or family support]
- [Reason 2: e.g., changes in child's schooling options]
- [Reason 3: e.g., overall better environment for the child]

I propose the following modifications to the current custody agreement:

1. [Proposal 1: e.g., change in visitation schedule]
2. [Proposal 2: e.g., adjustments to transportation responsibilities]
3. [Proposal 3: e.g., mediation to further address concerns]

I respectfully request a hearing on this matter. I believe that the proposed changes will serve [Child's Name]'s best interests while ensuring an ongoing relationship with both parents.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
