

Letter of Support for Domestic Violence Protection Order

Date: [Insert Date]

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to provide supporting evidence for [Name of the Victim], who is seeking a domestic violence protection order against [Name of the Alleged Abuser].

As [your relationship to the victim, e.g., friend, family member, coworker], I have witnessed [his/her/their] traumatic experiences and can attest to the following incidents:

- [Describe incident 1, including date and details]
- [Describe incident 2, including date and details]
- [Describe incident 3, including date and details]

Additionally, I have seen the emotional and mental impact these experiences have had on [Name of the Victim], including [describe observable changes such as anxiety, fear, physical harm, etc.].

I strongly support [Name of the Victim's] request for a protection order and believe it is necessary for [his/her/their] safety and well-being. I am willing to provide further testimony or evidence if required.

Thank you for taking this matter seriously.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
