Dear [Client Name],

Subject: Advisory on Global Transfer Pricing Strategy

We are pleased to present our advisory services regarding the optimization of your global transfer pricing strategy. As businesses expand internationally, compliant and efficient transfer pricing practices become crucial for alignment with local regulations and minimizing tax risks.

Our approach involves a thorough analysis of your current transfer pricing policies, benchmarking against market data, and recommendations tailored to your business operations. We will consider the following key areas:

- Analysis of current intercompany pricing policies
- Identification of potential risks and compliance issues
- Benchmarking against industry standards
- Recommendations for effective documentation practices
- Strategies for aligning with local and international regulations

We look forward to collaborating with you to ensure your transfer pricing strategy not only meets regulatory requirements but also supports your global growth objectives. Please feel free to reach out to discuss this further.

Thank you for considering our advisory services.

Best regards,
