Dear [Bank Manager's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally request an increase in my credit line for my account number [Your Account Number]. After careful consideration of my financial situation and spending habits, I believe that an increased credit limit would better accommodate my needs.

Over the past [duration], I have consistently made my payments on time and have maintained a good credit score. I have also had an increase in my monthly income due to [brief explanation of your situation, e.g., job promotion, new job, etc.].

With an increased credit line, I would be able to manage my expenses more effectively and improve my credit utilization ratio, thereby contributing positively to my credit history.

Thank you for considering my request. I would appreciate the opportunity to discuss this matter further. Please feel free to contact me at [Your Phone Number] or [Your Email Address].

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
