

To My Beloved

On this day, my heart sings,

Celebrating love that time brings.

Through every laugh and every tear,

Your presence makes the world so dear.

Years have passed, yet still we shine,

Hand in hand, you are forever mine.

With every sunset, every dawn,

My love for you has only grown strong.

So here's to us, to what we share,

In every moment, you show you care.

Happy anniversary, my heart's delight,

With you, my world is ever bright.

Forever yours,
