Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally inquire about the possibility of expanding our current credit limit with [Recipient's Company Name]. As a loyal reseller of your products, we have consistently demonstrated growth in our business and believe that an increase in our credit limit would enable us to better serve our customers.

Over the past [time period], our sales have [briefly describe sales growth or achievements]. This has led to an increase in demand for your products, and we are eager to continue meeting our customers' needs effectively.

We believe that an expansion of our credit limit would facilitate this growth while reinforcing our partnership with your company. We would appreciate any information on the necessary steps to move forward with this request.

Thank you for considering our inquiry. We look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
