

Follow-up on Retail Diversity Training Progress

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I wanted to take a moment to follow up on the recent diversity training sessions that took place on [date(s)]. We are committed to fostering a more inclusive environment within our retail team, and your feedback is vital to our progress.

Could you please provide an update on the implementation of the practices discussed during the training? Additionally, we would love to hear any insights you may have gained and any challenges you might be facing in incorporating these changes into your daily operations.

Thank you for your dedication to making our workplace more diverse and inclusive. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best regards,
