Dear [Recipient Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally request a discussion regarding the upcoming suburban planning initiatives that are expected to impact our community. As a resident of [Insert Suburb Name], I believe that community input is essential in shaping these plans effectively.

Specifically, I would like to discuss [insert specific issues or concerns], which I feel are crucial to the future development of our suburb.

Please let me know a suitable time for us to meet or if a public forum is planned where residents can express their views. I look forward to your prompt response.

Thank you for considering this request.

Sincerely,
