Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to offer a donation of a collection of antiques that I believe would greatly enrich your upcoming public exhibition.

The collection includes:

These items are not only of historical significance but also hold personal value to me, and I would be honored for them to be showcased in your esteemed institution.

I look forward to the possibility of contributing to your exhibition and would be happy to discuss further details at your convenience.

Thank you for considering my offer.

Sincerely,
