Dear [Recipient's Name],

Thank you for your recent proposal regarding a collaborative exhibit titled "[Exhibit Title]" at [Museum Name]. We appreciate the time and effort you and your team invested in the proposal.

After careful consideration, we regret to inform you that we are unable to move forward with your project at this time. While we found your concept intriguing, it does not align with our current exhibition calendar and strategic goals.

We value our relationship and hope to explore potential opportunities for collaboration in the future. Please do not hesitate to reach out with any other ideas or projects you may wish to discuss.

Thank you again for your understanding, and we look forward to the possibility of working together down the road.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
