

Request for Assistance

Date: [Insert Date]

To Whom It May Concern,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally request your assistance regarding a recurring issue with a car alarm that has been causing significant disturbance in our neighborhood.

The vehicle in question is a [insert car make, model, and color], which is regularly parked at [insert location]. The alarm tends to go off unexpectedly, often during late night or early morning hours, disrupting the peace and causing distress to residents.

Despite our attempts to address the issue informally with the car owner, the problem remains unresolved. We believe that intervention from your office could help find a solution to this ongoing nuisance.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. We appreciate your help in restoring the tranquility of our community.

Sincerely,
