

Follow-Up for Client Referral

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I wanted to follow up on my previous conversation regarding potential client referrals. I truly appreciate any connections you might be able to provide.

As discussed, my services specialize in [briefly describe your services or expertise], and I believe they could greatly benefit [mention the potential client's needs].

If you have anyone in mind, I would be grateful for an introduction. Thank you once again for your support, and feel free to reach out if you have any questions or need further information.

Best regards,
