

Manuscript Rejection Feedback

Dear [Author's Name],

Thank you for submitting your manuscript titled "[Manuscript Title]" to [Journal Name]. After thorough evaluation, we regret to inform you that we will not be able to accept your manuscript for publication.

While we appreciate the effort and research that went into your submission, we identified several methodological concerns that significantly impacted our decision:

- The sample size of your study was too small to draw conclusive results, which raises questions about the validity of the findings.
- The data collection methods were not clearly defined, making it difficult to assess the reliability and reproducibility of your results.
- Statistical analyses employed were inappropriate for the type of data presented, leading to potential misinterpretations of the outcomes.

We encourage you to address these concerns and consider resubmitting your manuscript after making the necessary revisions. We appreciate your understanding and hope to see your work in the future.

Thank you for considering [Journal Name] for your publication.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
