

Manuscript Rejection Feedback

Dear [Author's Name],

Thank you for submitting your manuscript titled "[Manuscript Title]" to [Journal Name]. We appreciate the opportunity to review your work.

After careful consideration, we regret to inform you that we are unable to accept your manuscript for publication at this time. The reviewers provided valuable feedback, and while your research presents interesting findings, there are areas that require further development for future submissions. Below are some key points from their comments:

- Clarity of methodology: Consider providing more detailed descriptions of your experimental design and methodology.
- Literature review: An expanded review of current literature would strengthen the context of your findings.
- Data interpretation: Some aspects of the data analysis may benefit from a more robust discussion of the implications.

We encourage you to address these points and consider resubmitting your manuscript to our journal or a different one. We believe your research has significant potential, and with the suggested revisions, it could make a valuable contribution to the field.

Thank you again for your submission, and we wish you the best of luck with your future research endeavors.

Sincerely,
