

Request for Article Revision

Dear [Editor's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I would like to express my gratitude for your valuable feedback on my manuscript entitled "[Article Title]" submitted on [Submission Date]. I have carefully considered the editorial comments and suggestions you provided.

In response to your feedback, I have made the following revisions:

- Addressed [specific comment] by [explanation of changes made].
- Clarified [specific section] as per your suggestion.
- Adjusted [data/methodology] to enhance the overall quality of the paper.

I believe these revisions have strengthened the manuscript substantially. I am enclosing the revised version along with a detailed response to each of your comments for your consideration.

Thank you for your guidance and support throughout this process. I look forward to your response.

Best regards,

[Your Name]

[Your Affiliation]

[Your Email]

[Your Phone Number]