

Dear [Author's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to discuss your recent submission titled "[Article Title]." First, I would like to thank you for your hard work and valuable contribution to our journal.

Upon reviewing your manuscript, I have identified some areas where improvements in language and clarity could enhance the readability and overall impact of your article. I believe that refining these aspects will help convey your ideas more effectively to the audience.

Specifically, I suggest the following revisions:

- Consider simplifying complex sentences to improve clarity.
- Ensure consistent use of terminology throughout the article.
- Clarify key arguments in the introduction to set a clearer context for the reader.
- Review the abstract for brevity and precision.

I would greatly appreciate it if you could address these points in your revised manuscript. Please submit the revised version by [Revision Due Date]. If you have any questions or require further assistance, feel free to reach out.

Thank you for your attention to these matters. I look forward to receiving your revised article.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
