

Article Revision Request

Dear [Author's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I would like to thank you for your submission entitled "[Article Title]." After careful review, we appreciate the valuable insights presented in your work.

However, we believe that the theoretical framework could be enhanced to strengthen the overall argument and clarity of the article. Specifically, we suggest the following revisions:

- Incorporate [specific theory or model] to better contextualize your findings.
- Discuss [specific literature] to provide a more comprehensive background and justification for your approach.
- Clarify the operational definitions of key concepts, such as [key concepts].

We encourage you to address these points in your revised manuscript. Please submit your revision by [due date] to ensure timely progress in the review process.

Thank you for your attention to these suggestions. We look forward to receiving your enhanced manuscript.

Best regards,
