

Dear [Author's Name],

We would like to thank you for submitting your manuscript titled "[Manuscript Title]" to [Journal Name]. After careful consideration and review, we regret to inform you that we are unable to accept your paper for publication.

Our reviewers have identified several methodological weaknesses that significantly impact the validity of your findings. Specifically, the concerns noted include:

- Inadequate sample size that limits the generalizability of your results.
- Lack of proper controls in the experimental design.
- Insufficient detail regarding data collection procedures.

While we appreciate the effort you put into your research, we believe that addressing these methodological shortcomings is crucial for enhancing the integrity of your study. We encourage you to revise your paper with these considerations in mind, potentially resubmitting to us or considering other journals that may be a better fit for your work.

Thank you for considering [Journal Name] for your research. We wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

[Editor's Name]
