

Editorial Review Feedback

Dear [Author's Name],

Thank you for submitting your manuscript titled "[Manuscript Title]" for consideration. We appreciate the effort you have put into your work. After careful review, we have gathered feedback from our editorial team.

General Comments

The overall concept of your manuscript is intriguing. However, we believe there are several areas that could benefit from further development.

Specific Feedback

- Introduction: Consider providing more background on [specific topic].
- Methodology: Clarify the methodology used and why it was chosen.
- Results: Expand on the results section by including additional data analyses.
- Discussion: Engage more deeply with existing literature to support your claims.

Conclusion

We encourage you to revise your manuscript addressing the feedback provided. Once you have completed the revisions, please resubmit your work for further consideration.

Thank you for your understanding, and we look forward to your revised submission.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
[Your Position]
[Publication Name]