Dear [Editor's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally request the withdrawal of my article titled "[Title of Article]," submitted on [Submission Date], due to significant changes in the scope of the research.

Since the submission, I have encountered [briefly explain the significant changes, e.g., new data, methodology modifications], rendering the initial submission no longer reflective of my findings.

I appreciate your understanding and consideration of this request. Please confirm the withdrawal at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
