

Letter of Solicitation for Inclusion in Scholarly Reviewer Directory

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. My name is [Your Name], and I am [Your Position] at [Your Institution]. We are currently compiling a directory of esteemed reviewers in the field of [Field/Discipline], aimed at enhancing the quality and efficiency of our scholarly publication processes.

We believe that your expertise in [Specific Area of Expertise] would be a valuable addition to our directory. As a recognized authority in your field, your participation would not only benefit our initiatives but also provide you the opportunity to engage with a broader academic community, share your insights, and contribute to advancing knowledge in [Field/Discipline].

If you are interested in being included in our directory, please confirm your willingness by replying to this email by [Deadline Date]. Should you choose to participate, we would require a brief biography and your areas of expertise to facilitate the matching process with relevant scholarly works.

Thank you for considering this opportunity to collaborate with us. We truly value your contributions to the academic community and hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
[Your Position]
[Your Institution]
[Your Contact Information]